Col 2:6-7 As you therefore have received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in Him, rooted and built up in Him and established in the faith, as you have been taught, abounding in it with thanksgiving.
Heb 3:4 For every house is built by someone, but He who built all things is God.

Mr. Franks and his wife Sharron traveled to four different congregations in three different countries in the month of January. There is also an update on the flooding in Malawi and the snow storm in the northeastern part of the US. 2014 was an exceptional year of expansion for COGWA. The Church of God, a Worldwide Association, invites our young adults - high school grads through age 39 - to attend the next installment of our Young Adult Leadership Weekend over Presidents’ Day Weekend, Feb 13-15. The 2015 YALW will be held simultaneously at seven sites across the United States - Atlanta, Branson, Columbus, Fort Worth, Los Angeles, Twin Cities and Portland. During this third YALW we will explore the theme “Living Stones: Your Part in Strengthening God’s House”. The Church is referred to as a spiritual temple, and we are the “living stones” that make up that building. Each stone is important to the integrity of the house and must be prepared for its place. Some of the concepts that will be covered are: history of the modern church, holding fast and maintaining our commitment to God, let no man despise your youth, the importance of unity, when leaders lead, what does it mean to be a “living stone”, FOI project brainstorming session. Keynote speakers for the weekend will be Jim Franks (COGWA president), Doug Horchak (Ministerial Services Operation manager) and Clyde Kilough (Media Operation manager). Registration is available from each site’s descriptive page. Go to http://members.cogwa.org/yalw

Passover is 61 days away.

Today, we need to be out of the hall by 5:00pm. Please start gathering your belongings at 4:45pm to exit the hall.

Ladies’ Tea

a great time was had by all as old friends reunited, with lots of conversation and laughter, over tea and snacks.
