Exodus 12:11-17 ... It is the LORD’s Passover. For I will pass through the land of Egypt on that night, and will strike all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgment: I am the LORD. ... So this day shall be to you a memorial; and you shall keep it as a feast to the LORD throughout your generations. ... Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread. ... For whoever eats leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, that person shall be cut off from Israel. ... So shall you observe the Feast of Unleavened Bread, ... Therefore you shall observe this day throughout your generations as an everlasting ordinance.

Announcements

Next Sabbath, April 16, will be our potluck for the month of April. Services will start at 1:00pm.

An electronic sign-up list regarding contributing to the meal on the Night to Be Much Observed went out earlier this week. Please check your email.

There are 12 days till Passover. (Note: Passover services the evening before).

Next Friday, April 15 at 8pm, Clyde Kilough will be the presenter for the Friday Night Live bible study entitled “Jerichos and Accursed Things”. Watch at \[http://members.cogwa.org/fnl\]

As we approach the Passover and Days of Unleavened Bread, a study of Joshua 5-7 is quite instructive. Not only did the events we read here transpire during this time of the year, more important, the spiritual lessons we can draw from this story are critically important, and as relevant now as they were over 3,000 years ago. What are your “Jerichos”? What are the “accursed things” that pose temptations and spiritual dangers to us today? Join Clyde Kilough for the Friday Night Live bible study as we dive deeper into these events and lessons.

The replay from the last Friday Night Live bible study presented by Scott Lord on “Judge Righteous Judgement” will be available till the new one airs. Watch more in the archive.

This year’s Bedford camping outing will be held at Shawnee State Park, PA (same as last year) July 8-10. There is a lake, hiking trails, fishing, and local sites to visit with a lot of history. Set aside the weekend for Sabbath services, fellowship and fun! Check out the flyer on the information table. We have a block of sites identified in a wooded area near a bathhouse (shower facilities). Make your reservations soon so we can be together as a group. For more information contact Brent Ebersole (bebersole@centurylink.net). If you are planning on attending, please let Brent know, and reserve your camp site now!

Today, we need to be out of the hall by 4:30pm. Please start gathering your belongings at 4:15pm to exit the hall.

For the last Sabbath of the month, April 30, services will be at the Double Tree by Hilton Hotel in Columbia.

Church News

In this week’s In Accord, COGWA president Jim Franks provides a general update on the work of the Church. Along with the news update, you’ll enjoy video and pictures from two recent activities: the “Families Glorifying God” weekend in the Twin Cities area of Minnesota and the recently concluded weekend for the couples involved in the Focused Mentoring Program at the office in Allen. It has been a busy time for the Church in the past couple of weeks, and there is no sign of any slowdown prior to the Passover and Days of Unleavened Bread. Upcoming Sabbath Services

Sabbath services will be held at Claret Hall through April, with the exception of April 30 where services will be held at the Double Tree by Hilton Hotel in Columbia. Services will start at 1pm for the month of April.

Important: Do not connect any electronic device to Claret Hall’s WiFi during church services. This interferes with the ability to have a strong connection for the webcast.
