Luke 12:48
...For everyone to whom much is given, from him much will be required; and to whom much has been committed, of him they will ask the more.

1 Pet 4:7-11 But the end of all things is at hand; therefore be serious and watchful in your prayers.

And above all things have fervent love for one another, for “love will cover a multitude of sins.” Be hospitable to one another without grumbling.

As each one has received a gift, minister it to one another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. If anyone speaks, let him speak as the oracles of God.

If anyone ministers, let him do it as with the ability which God supplies, that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom belong the glory and the dominion forever and ever. Amen.

Church News

This week on In Accord, treasurer Britton Taylor gives a midyear report on the finances of the Church. The income is strong and our expenses are within budget. In addition, Mr. Taylor reports on his visit to the Mexico City congregation this past Sabbath. The enthusiasm and dedication of the members was deeply inspiring. The accompanying pictures show the friendly faces of our Mexican brethren. View at http://members.cogwa.org/news

People are welcome to fish or for those who would prefer, there will be a barbecue - both held the same day at the same location in the Frederick area. And if you’re squeamish about the worms, I’ll even put the worms on the hook for you. Anyone interested may contact Kyle Moore at 301-310-3507 or kmoore5992@yahoo.com. Come on, I’m desperate.”
