Matt 20:26-28 Yet it shall not be so among you; but whoever desires to become great among you, let him be your servant. And whoever desires to be first among you, let him be your slave - just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many.

Phil 2:3-4 Let nothing be done through selfish ambition or conceit, but in lowliness of mind let each esteem others better than himself. Let each of you look out not only for his own interests, but also for the interests of others.

The FI Online classes will resume this Wednesday, Oct. 29 at 8pm EDT. Dr. Ralph Levy will begin the book of Jeremiah.

Important: Do not connect any electronic device to Claret Hall’s WiFi during church services. This interferes with the ability to have a strong connection for the webcast.

Our annual Thanksgiving Potluck will be Sabbath, Nov. 15. Please be reminded that we like to have our canned food drive coincide with the Thanksgiving Potluck. Non-perishable food items will be collected and distributed first to brethren who are in need. Any remaining items will be donated locally.

We would like to invite everyone to share their Feast of Tabernacles pictures during the Thanksgiving Potluck. Pick out your 25 favorite pictures and email (laetitia2604@yahoo.com) or otherwise provide them to Laetitia Demarest. Laetitia will put them in order and prepare a slideshow to be shown during the meal. See Laetitia with any questions.

Feast Item Auction: Please save those unique items you bought at your Feast site to contribute to the post-Feast auction. Like last year, we will have the auction after the Thanksgiving Potluck!

We need to be out of the hall by 5:00pm. Please start gathering your belongings at 4:45pm to exit the hall.

Church News

This week on In Accord, Jim Franks gives an update on the 2014 Feast of Tabernacles. For the first time in our brief history the total attendance (including webcasts and videos) exceeded 10,000. There were 400 more people in attendance (not counting webcasts and videos) this year than last year. Most of the increase took place outside the U.S. This year more U.S. members than in previous years travelled to international sites, attending in Ireland, the Caribbean and France. In addition to the Feast report, Mr. Franks discusses plans for the remainder of this calendar year. View at http://members.cogwa.org/news
